

Mattie L. Williams - Biography

Learn from the Past, and Live in the Present for Your Future!!

Mattie Williams is a Special Education teacher who currently teaches 6th-8th grade Autistic Support in The School District of Philadelphia. She is an author and speaker with her first book of the It Had to Happen series, It Had to Happen: Memoirs From an Abused Child.

Mattie was awarded 3rd Place of The BookFest competition in the Non-Fiction/Personal Memoirs Genre in October 23, 2022. She holds an M.Ed in Special Education/Elementary Education from Lincoln University. Mattie believes in the importance of child advocacy by teaching children how to advocate for themselves.

She teaches students to do their best academically while encouraging her students to push past their trauma in order to be the best version of themselves emotionally and mentally. In her spare time, Mattie likes to spend time with her family and friends, play I Declare War with her students, read books, write, and play volleyball. She is currently working on book two of her It Had to Happen Series, It Had to Happen: Memoirs From A Foster Child- Damaged.

Contact Mattie

mattielwilliams.com

mattielwilliams22@gmail.com